Through One Great Hour of Sharing, we become the household of God. We extend shelter to those who have no place to stay, offer compassion to those who have pain—be it physical, emotional or spiritual—and we set a feast, with God, for those who lack access to enough food to eat. God’s household filled with love and everyone is welcome.

When a new landlord acquired her building, Monica was repeatedly and falsely accused of being late with a rent payment, or paying the rent at all. Each time, the charges were dismissed in court, but she was becoming very worried that one day the landlord might find a way to evict her from the affordable apartment where she had lived for more than a decade — especially since she could not afford a lawyer.

Thankfully, Monica connected with a tenants’ rights group supported by gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing that helped her find reasonably priced legal representation. She learned that her new landlord has a history of forcing people from their apartments and significantly raising the rent in violation of rent control and other housing regulations.

No longer having to face the legal system alone, Monica was vindicated yet again, and now has the knowledge and help to secure affordable housing.

You shall be called repairers of the breach

— ISAIAH 58

In Isaiah 58, God issues a call and a challenge—to love one another more deeply by sharing what we have with those in need. Together, we become the household of God where those seeking shelter, food and renewed hope are welcome.

Received during the season of Lent, One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) is the single, largest way that Presbyterians come together every year to build God’s household and welcome our neighbors-in-need around the world by providing relief from natural disasters, food for the hungry, and support for the poor and oppressed. Each gift to OGHS helps to improve the lives of people in challenging situations through three impactful programs:

PRESBYTERIAN DISASTER ASSISTANCE

- + Works alongside communities as they recover and find hope after the devastation of natural or human-caused disasters

PRESBYTERIAN HUNGER PROGRAM

- + Takes action to alleviate hunger and the systemic causes of poverty so all may be fed

SELF-DEVELOPMENT OF PEOPLE

- + Invests in communities responding to their experiences of racism, oppression, poverty and injustice and educates Presbyterians about the impact of these societal ills

Join with Presbyterians worldwide in answering God’s call.

This Lenten season, please give generously to One Great Hour of Sharing.
