Using Jesus' harvest imagery in John 4:35–38 and Matthew 9:37–38/Luke 10:2, this urgent text sounds a compelling call to Christian service. The words gain energy from the strong unison tune in the English cathedral style, whose name echoes the Benedictine motto "Prayer is work."

THE PURPOSE OF "WOR(K)SHIP" SUNDAY

ANTHEM

"Hear My Cry, O Lord"

by Dan & Heidi Goeller

Chancel & Exaltation! Singers

*Hear my cry for mercy, as I call to you for help;
as I lift up my hands unto your holy place.*

(Chorus)

Praise to the LORD! For he has heard my cry.
My heart trusts in him, he is my strength and shield.
Praise to the LORD! For he has heard my cry.
My heart leaps for joy and I will give thanks to him.

Hear my words, O LORD my God, listen to my cry for help, you are my King and my God, to you alone I pray. (Chorus)

*In the morning, you hear my voice.
In the morning, I lay my needs before you and wait in expectation. (Chorus)*

SCRIPTURE LESSON

The 2nd Letter of Paul to Timothy 4:1–5

I'm giving you this commission in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is coming to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearance and his kingdom. Preach the word. Be ready to do it whether it is convenient or inconvenient. Correct, confront, and encourage with patience and instruction. There will come a time when people will not tolerate sound teaching. They will collect teachers who say what they want to hear because they are self-centered. They will turn their back on the truth and turn to myths. But you must keep control of yourself in all circumstances. Endure suffering, do the work of a preacher of the good news, and carry out your service fully.
