PRELUDE
“Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing”  arr. Patricia Lou Harris
Linda Dover, organist
This arrangement has three parts composed in different styles. During the first section listen for a blown bottle and kalimba; a rock organ, string ensemble and acoustic bass sound out in the second section; a traditional grandiose organ wraps up the arrangement thanks to the MIDI settings of our instrument. May God be praised!

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP  (spoken together)
If you are tired from carrying heavy burdens, come to me and I will give you rest.
Take the yoke I give you. Put it on your shoulders and learn from me. I am gentle and humble, and you will find rest. This yoke is easy to bear, and this burden is light.

Christ calls us to come to worship to rest from the things that are troubling us.
To learn what Christ can teach of life. To realize what we can offer to others and so to return into the world to serve. Let us worship God.

HYMN 5
“God the Sculptor of the Mountains ”  JENNINGS-HOUSTON
Vs. 1, 3 and 4
(printed hymn below)
1 God the sculptor of the mountains, God the miller of the sand,
2 God the nuisance of the Pharaoh, God the cleaver of the sea,
3 God the dresser of the vineyard, God the planter of the wheat,
4 God the unexpected infant, God the calm, determined youth,

Gm7 C F E7 A A7
heavens, God the potter of the land:
darkness, God the beacon of the free:
harvest, God the source of all we eat:
prophet, God the resurrected truth:

D F#m G F#m Bm
you are womb of all creation;
you are fount of all deliverance;
you are host at every table;
you are present every moment;

Em D Em D
we are formless; shape us now.
we are aimless; lead us now.
we are hungry; feed us now.
we are searching; meet us now.

Despite the great sweep of these stanzas, each one ends by describing how our human condition needs God’s help: formless, aimless, hungry, searching. Each of these adjectives is followed by a related three-syllable petition: shape us now, lead us now, feed us now, meet us now.

This text and tune were written to conclude a hymn festival at the 2009 Annual Conference of The Hymn Society in the United States and Canada. Four parables framed both the festival and the hymn: the Mustard Seed, the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan, and the Ten Bridesmaids.
Jesus told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like someone who planted good seed in his field. While people were sleeping, an enemy came and planted weeds among the wheat and went away. When the stalks sprouted and bore grain, then the weeds also appeared. “The servants of the landowner came and said to him, ‘Master, didn’t you plant good seed in your field? Then how is it that it has weeds?’ “‘An enemy has done this,’ he answered. “The servants said to him, ‘Do you want us to go and gather them?’ “But the landowner said, ‘No, because if you gather the weeds, you’ll pull up the wheat along with them. Let both grow side by side until the harvest. And at harvest time I’ll say to the harvesters, “First gather the weeds and tie them together in bundles to be burned. But bring the wheat into my barn.”’”

Jesus left the crowds and went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field.”

Jesus replied, “The one who plants the good seed is the Human One. The field is the world. And the good seeds are the followers of the kingdom. But the weeds are the followers of the evil one. The enemy who planted them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the present age. The harvesters are the angels. Just as people gather weeds and burn them in the fire, so it will be at the end of the present age. The Human One will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all things that cause people to fall away and all people who sin. He will throw them into a burning furnace. People there will be weeping and grinding their teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in their Father’s kingdom. Those who have ears should hear.”

Holy Wisdom, Holy Words.

Thanks be to God!

HYMN 547

“Go, My Children, With My Blessing”

AR HYD Y NOS

Vs. 1-Soloist, Vs. 2 & 3-All

(printed hymn below)
Go, My Children, with My Blessing

1 “Go, my children, with my blessing, never alone.
Wake, sleeping, I am with you, you are my own.
In my love’s baptismal river I have made you mine forever.
Ev’ry Go, my children, with my blessing, you are my own.
Glory, Go, my children, sins forgiven, at peace and pure.”

2 “Go, my children, sins forgiven, at peace and pure.
Here you learned how much I love you, what I can cure.
Here you heard my dear Son’s story; here you touched him, saw his glory.
Stilled you. Go, my children, fed and nourished, joyful and free.”

3 “Go, my children, fed and nourished, closer to me.
Grow in love and love by serving, joyful and free.
Here my Spirit’s power filled you; here my tender comfort ev’ry.
Go, my children, with my blessing, you are my own.”

Because this Welsh melody usually sets evening texts, the author was asked to create one for use in daytime. His recasting of the Aaronic blessing in Numbers 6:22–27 imagines that passage as a benediction that might be spoken by God at the conclusion of a worship service.
