“If We Just Talk of Thoughts and Prayers”  O WALY WALY
A TIME FOR CHILDREN

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Grace giving God, you ask us to love and to keep your word. Simple instructions. Yet, even with the Holy Spirit to help us, we still fail at loving and following faithfully. Every time we fail, speak to us again of your truths. Keep telling us over and over again, so that one day soon, we hear your words and believe. Amen.
ASSURANCE OF GOD’S LOVE

SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

One: You are God’s beloved. Peace be with you.

All: And also with you and all others!

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON Acts 16:16–34 (Common English Bible) Brandon Hearn

One day, when we were on the way to the place for prayer, we met a slave woman. She had a spirit that enabled her to predict the future. She made a lot of money for her owners through fortune-telling. She began following Paul and us, shouting, “These people are servants of the Most High God! They are proclaiming a way of salvation to you!” She did this for many days.

This annoyed Paul so much that he finally turned and said to the spirit, “In the name of Jesus Christ, I command you to leave her!” It left her at that very moment.

Her owners realized that their hope for making money was gone. They grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them before the officials in the city center. When her owners approached the legal authorities, they said, “These people are causing an uproar in our city. They are Jews who promote customs that we Romans can’t accept or practice.” The crowd joined in the attacks against Paul and Silas, so the authorities ordered that they be stripped of their clothes and beaten with a rod. When Paul and Silas had been severely beaten, the authorities threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to secure them with great care. When he received these instructions, he threw them into the innermost cell and secured their feet in stocks.

Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. All at once there was such a violent earthquake that it shook the prison’s foundations. The doors flew open and everyone’s chains came loose. When the jailer awoke and saw the open doors of the prison, he thought the prisoners had escaped, so he drew his sword and was about to kill himself. But Paul shouted loudly, “Don’t harm yourself! We’re all here!”

The jailer called for some lights, rushed in, and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. He led them outside and asked, “Honorable masters, what must I do to be rescued?”

They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your entire household.” They spoke the Lord’s word to him and everyone else in his house. Right then, in the middle of the night, the jailer welcomed them and washed their wounds. He and everyone in his household were immediately baptized. He brought them into his home and gave them a meal. He was overjoyed because he and everyone in his household had come to believe in God.
ANTHEM + “You Do Not Walk Alone”
Chancel & Exaltation! Singers
Music by Elaine Hagenberg
Traditional Irish Blessing

May you see God’s light on the path ahead when the road you walk is dark.
May you always hear, even in your hour of sorrow, the gentle singing of the lark.
When times are hard may hardness never turn your heart to stone, may you always remember when the shadows fall you do not walk alone.

HEBREWS SCRIPTURE LESSON Psalm 34:17–18
Common English Bible

When the righteous cry out, the LORD listens; he delivers them from all their troubles.
The LORD is close to the brokenhearted; he saves those whose spirits are crushed.

1. God, in our church’s teaching, may we be bold and clear;
2. Isaiah boldly told us you hate our worship ways;
3. May these be crucial lessons we teach the old and young;
4. O God, we grieve the violence, the shootings, and the hate;

may it become our practice to counter hate and fear,
when we ignore injustice and simply offer praise.
that racist ways are evil, that sexist ways are wrong.
we grieve our own indifference—our speaking out too late.

We’ve said that Jesus’ message is one that’s filled with love,
And Jesus gave a warning: When we—in sin and pride—
In Sunday schools and pulpits, may this be what we speak:
God, in our church’s witness, may we say loud and clear:

and yet our sweeping statements are clearly not enough.
refuse to welcome others, we turn our Lord aside.
God made each person precious, beloved and unique.
We welcome every neighbor. We work for justice here.
