We are certainly living in interesting times.

Grace Covenant is in the middle of its 7th month since initially closing the church building and it’s been a challenge for each one of us. The most important aspects of our ministry, both as a congregation and as individuals, are based on relationships. Consider the difference between sending a check to a charitable organization and helping serve others in person. There’s just something special about interacting with someone face-to-face rather than doing things impersonally.

The whole world is in upheaval – the cultural and political landscape is like nothing we’ve seen before in our lifetimes, especially when you toss in hurricanes, wildfires, gun violence, protests. Some of us look at the world and seeing all of this, feel despair.

We recognize those feelings and we’ve had them too. And yet…

There is also reason for hope. While the congregation and staff have not been able to do everything we’d like to do, there have been many instances of compassion and care for others. Our mission work has been focused and expanded, plus our donations for those in need have been wonderful. Our education programs have been creative and inviting in this digital world. Our worship evolves on a regular basis, with staff and members always seeking ways to bring music and prayer to life on screen. Maybe most important of all, our society has had its eyes opened to aspects of racism and injustice that, in the past, we’ve either been blind to or just ignored.

This will not last forever. We believe that health care professionals will devise vaccines and treatments that will not only address the coronavirus but will also help address future viruses. We believe that despite the conflict going on in our country at this time, people of faith will continue to speak out for change, for justice and mercy to become part of the fabric of our nation. We believe that the blessed community that God created us for will come closer to being if we continue to work for change, one step at a time.

We believe in God’s love for the world and we believe in each other. We believe.

Peace be with you all, —Mitch & Sue Trigger

Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church celebrates God’s unbounded grace and all-inclusive love.

God gathers us in a welcoming community, with our curiosity and questions, to worship creatively, learn from God’s word, share our gifts, and deepen our faith.

With grateful hearts and a spirit of adventure, we go to serve Christ in the world, sharing kindness with everyone, and working for justice rooted in God’s love.

World Communion Sunday
Sunday, October 4 is World Communion Sunday

Remember to have your Communion elements ready at the beginning of the service that morning at 10am. You are invited to submit your prayers for the world to Rev. Sue to be included in a prayer wall outside of the Sanctuary. Send to sue.trigger@gcpc.org.

During worship, we encourage you to enjoy coloring the Peace and Global Witness Offering coloring page. You can download the page at: https://specialofferings.pcusa.org/resource/peace-global-witness-coloring-page/.

On World Communion Sunday, we celebrate that Christ’s peace extends throughout all creation. We celebrate that we are all together at the table, in God’s house. We celebrate that we are offered what we need to continue the work of building the household of God with active peacemakers here at home and around the world.

We take action today by offering a blessing of our own.

Through our participation in the Peace & Global Witness Offering, our church is extending Christ’s peace throughout our community—25% of the gifts received will stay right here at the church to build God’s house; 25% will support regional efforts in our mid councils, and 50% will go the Presbyterian Mission Agency for its ministries of education and partnership with active peacemakers all around the world.

Peacemakers in places like Cameroon, where violence and conflict threaten, peacemakers providing ministries of reconciliation inside prison walls, and peacemakers seeking to eradicate diseases like HIV-AIDS and their impacts on the most vulnerable, all gather with us at the table in God’s house.

You can send your donation to the church marked Peace and Global Witness Offering or donate online at https://specialofferings.pcusa.org/make-a-gift/gift-info/peace-global-witness/.

Grace Covenant is a Hunger Action Congregation for 2020-2022

The Presbyterian Church USA has granted Grace Covenant certification as a Hunger Action Congregation (HAC) for the three-year period 2020-2022, our second such designation following 2017-2019.

The HAC program identifies six areas in which a church must have at least one activity in order to be certified as a HAC working to end hunger and its causes.

Those six areas are (with a Grace Covenant activity indicated in parentheses):
- Hunger Alleviation (Kansas City Kansas Hot Lunch Program)
- Development Assistance (Johnson County Interfaith Hospitality Network)
- Hunger Education (Hunger speakers doing Minutes for Mission)
- Lifestyle Integrity (Earth Care Congregation)
- Corporate and Public Policy Witness (Bread for the World Offering of Letters)
- Worship (Sermons on hunger)

You may recall a number of other activities not listed above that could be, for example, the youth Souper Bowl food collection and several monthly donation partners receiving food each year.
The September 21, 2020, Session meeting was held via Zoom with Reverend Sue Trigger serving as moderator. In addition to the ruling elders, Reverend Mitch Trigger, deacon Barb Brown and church staff members Rebecca Prater and Patrick Bell were in attendance. Sue opened the meeting at 7:00 p.m. and Andrew Frye shared a devotion about answering the question “What Would Jesus Do?” by saying “He would love first.”

Consent agenda: The minutes of the August 17 Session meeting were approved.

Team minutes: Generosity team - The 2020 stewardship campaign began with a video during the church service on Sunday. Weekly videos will continue until October 18 when there will be a drive-through drop-off of pledge cards, followed by a box lunch. Worship team - Producing online services has meant an increase in our technological needs. Some members have donated funds for this purpose (thank you!). While there is a line item in the Worship team budget for these expenses, it’s not enough to meet the increased expenses caused by alternate services. Session asked the Finance team to explore other sources for the necessary funds.

Clerk’s report: No changes for the membership rolls so we have 397 members.

Co-Pastors’ report: There were no questions with the co-pastors’ report. Based upon the success of the upcoming outdoor service on Workship Sunday, we might try some more outdoor services.

Deacons’ report: Barb Brown reported that we’ll be looking for a new deacon moderator as Jennifer Battaglioli is moving. The deacons are continuing to make much-appreciated calls to covenant group members.

Presbytery meeting: GCPC was well-represented at the Presbytery meeting. Susan Sutherland said a video about Black Lives Matter was shown and suggested we include it on the GCPC website.

Old business: We received requests from AA, Woodcarvers and the blood drive, to be able to meet inside the building as we get closer to winter. After discussion about how we could safely accommodate this, a motion was made to let them start using the building on October 1, subject to guidance from Patrick Bell. Rev. Mitch reported there had been one distribution of funds from the discretionary fund for a meal for someone.

New business: There was a motion to split the Welcoming and Marketing teams. It received a second and passed. Kim Krueger will continue to do the marketing functions with input from the church staff. Welcoming team will be a separate team.

After sharing joys and concerns, the meeting adjourned at 8:10pm and Rev. Sue Trigger closed with a prayer.

The October Communion Offering collection and donation partner is the Red Bag Christmas Program.

The following information comes from the redbagskc.com website:

In the winter of 1984, Daniel Jacobs drove to western Johnson County to tell a family that KCPL had to cut off their electricity for lack of payment. He had done it before, and he would need to do it again, but this family’s plight haunted him. With Christmas approaching, he knew he had to find some way to help! Within eight days his family, friends and co-workers had donated so many gifts and so much food that his garage was overflowing. That first year, three families were blessed with the magic of Christmas.

After experiencing this measure of generosity from others, Daniel knew he was on to something! Over the years, his outreach grew. More and more families were helped—and the garages in his cul-de-sac were filled to the brim with items for others.

A couple of years later, a fortuitous encounter with a social worker inspired Daniel to extend his outreach and the Red Bags portion of Christmas Families was launched. Foster children on both sides of the state line became recipients of large red bags stuffed with things they needed such as warm clothing and school supplies and items they longed for like remote-control cars, Barbies and Legos.

Thirty-seven years later, this grassroots organization continues to bring the spirit of the holidays to more than 50 families and 1500 foster children every December. Individuals, faith communities, businesses and organizations look over a child’s wish list, choose the items, shop for just the right things and add the wrapped gifts to the Red Bag for special delivery on Christmas morning.

Christmas Families was incorporated as a 501c3 organization in 1992. Today it proudly continues as an all-volunteer entity. Apart from a handful of hard expenses such as printing and other support materials, 100% of donations are used to buy gifts and food for families and foster children.

Sadly, Daniel Jacobs died in 2017—but what a legacy he left! Christmas Families is his gift to us. We honor his generous spirit each time we adopt a family or foster child and are blessed to help carry on the rich tradition he began.

Red Bag sign-ups will be released the week of October 11

Sign up and help make Christmas brighter for a foster child. To help, simply select the gift(s) you will provide, fill in your name, phone number and email address and MAKE YOURSELF A POST IT NOTE! (Please include on the post it note the name, gender, and age of the child as well as what the gift is.) Then bring your wrapped gift(s) back to the church WITH YOUR POST IT NOTE ATTACHED on November 1 at a time to be announced soon.

When asked by a child many years ago if he knew Santa Claus personally, Mr. Jacobs replied, “Well, yes, I do. He’s a good friend of mine!” This might seem like just a cute story but think of the difference it makes in these kids’ lives to know they are not forgotten during the holidays. Many of the children sponsored through Red Bags do not receive gifts through any other means.

Thank you for supporting this heartwarming project and for helping Daniel Jacobs’s legacy live on. Contact Angela Krug with questions (angelakrug@yahoo.com or 913-449-3916).

“Images of Faith - Gates of Paradise”
October 4, 11, 18 at 11:15am
Study with Jan Cummings (Zoom class)
Zoom Meeting ID: 827 3036 2400
Passcode: GCPC2020

Begun in the year 1425 and installed in 1452, The Gates of Paradise are Ghiberti’s celebrated bronze doors on the Florence Baptistery. About 30 years ago it was decided that the doors should be taken out of the weather, conserved and placed in a museum. The doors were faithfully reproduced and placed on the baptistery. A second set was reproduced at the same time. That set of doors are now housed in The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art.

The 4-week class (first class held on September 27) will look at and discuss each of the 10 panels/stories that make up the door, using biblical references, and other art pieces that depict the references.

“Holy Currencies: Blessings That Begin with Giving”
October 6, 13 at 7pm
Study with Mitch Trigger (Zoom class)
Meeting ID: 821 1444 5533
Passcode: GCPC2020

Join us on 2 Tuesday evenings in October as we consider ways, we, the church, can be the best example of Jesus Christ in the world. We’ll be looking at HOLY CURRENCIES by Eric Law, who offers some new understanding for us of HOW we can carry out the work of God in a way that highlights our love of God and one another. Go to our Grace Covenant website at https://gcpc.org/education/adults/virtual-adult-education/holy-currencies---blessings-that-begin-with-giving.html for resources for each week’s discussion.
Thursday Morning Bible Study
Beginning October 1, 9:30-11am (Zoom study)
Cheryl Johnson, facilitator (Contact for Zoom meeting information)

The Thursday morning Bible study group will begin a 2-week study of Colossians on October 1. Student reading will be e-mailed before our meetings.

On October 15, we’ll begin studying Psalms using a book from the Six Themes Everyone Should Know series published by the PC(USA). The books cost $13.

If you’d like to receive the Colossians e-mails and/or order a Psalms book, please e-mail Cheryl Johnson, agathatoo@gmail.com.

Christianity and American Politics
October 25, November 1, 8, 15, 22 at 11:15am
Study with Dave Pack and Rev. Sue Trigger (Zoom class)
Zoom link will be made available prior to the first class
Join us at 11:15am on Sunday mornings, October 25 through November 22, for this class facilitated by Dave Pack and Rev. Sue Trigger. We will begin by looking at some PCUSA resources on talking about politics in a church setting.

The two Sundays around the November 3 national election will seek open-ended sharing about what’s happened politically that week and how it was perceived relative to individuals’ faith.

The last two Sundays will focus on topics such as health care, poverty, climate change, racism, campaign finance reform and open-ended sharing about these topics relative to individuals’ faith. How do we make American politics more Christian?

PageTurners in October
The October PageTurners selection is The Guest Book by Sarah Blake. We’ll be meeting at the home of Jan Cummings 9815 Broadmoor on Thursday, October 1, at 6:30pm. All are welcome! We’ll be social distancing on the deck so grab something to stay warm. Please RSVP to Jan at cjan1950@gmail.com or 913-269-4164. We will also have the opportunity to Zoom. Please join us even if you haven’t read the book!

October SMASH and Trunk or Treat!
October 25, 4pm and 5pm
K-5th grades

Our next SMASH is scheduled for Sunday, October 25, 4 - 6pm. Wear your costumes and get ready to play and learn about how God has used disguises too! Christy Soule will be our leader once again for this afternoon of fun! Children age K-5th grade are invited to join us for story time, games, crafts, fellowship and just plain fun. We will meet in outside near the portico or if need be social distanced in Heartland Hall.

Please RSVP to help us safely prepare for supplies and social distance. RSVP to Christy at: christysoule@yahoo.com

AND, we will enjoy a socially distanced Trunk or Treat at 5pm, October 25, in the church parking lot.

This year we will ask our trunk providers to park with one parking space between each car. We will create a parade route and trunk or treat route that will maintain social distancing. We encourage everyone to incorporate a face mask into your costume. Candy dispensers will be asked to wear gloves. Children’s Team is creating some 6’ tubes that can be used to dispense candy into children’s treat container. This year the event will be offered to church families only and will not be advertised to the public in order to maintain safe distancing.

If you would like to provide your trunk and some treats, please contact Rev. Sue at sue.trigger@gcpc.org. Candy donations may be dropped off at church on Sunday, October 18 at the outdoor Stewardship lunch at 11:30am.
GCPC Youth Events for Fall 2020

Connect and the Fall Youth Schedule
We wrapped up our summer youth activities with an event at Lake Olathe in early September. Since then, we have begun more traditional Sunday evening “Connect” activities for our youth. We have tie-dyed masks and put together care packages for our college Freshman and Sophomores, played games, and had devotions. Starting September 27, we shifted our schedule to have Connect on Sunday evenings from 5:10—6:30. This is immediately following Ex! music rehearsals. When it works to meet outside that is what we do, and when the weather does not cooperate, we move into Heartland Hall, following appropriate safety requirements, of course. Since we have had a great time working together on service projects this summer and have seen a great need, we will also continue to serve our neighbors when possible.

Christian Education
Sunday Morning Classes continue for middle and high school students. All students start together, in-person and via Zoom at 11:15am on Sundays and wrap up around noon. Classes are held outdoors at church with the possibility of moving into Heartland Hall if necessary.

Confirmation
We are VERY excited to have finally received our Confirmands from the class of 20-21 into membership on September 27! During the 9am outdoor worship at the start of “Workship Sunday” we heard their affirmations of faith, some in person and some via Zoom. Families and congregation members attended in-person, via FaceBook and via Zoom to experience this special event and celebrate with them! The class finished their preparation in May and was approved by Session, but the group decided to postpone their reception service scheduled for Pentecost in favor of meeting in person. At that time nobody expected the wait to be quite so long. We are very happy for this fabulous group of students: Connor Chaffin, Andrew Cox, Hank Peck, Nadine Peck, Max Passett, Lauren Smith, and Jaylee Soule. Their mentors this year were Liz Chandler and Jake Schmidt. Sunday morning leaders were Kevin Johnson and Gingie Watt. We plan to recognize this special class again when we are all able to meet in the sanctuary.

Welcome Andi!!!
We are feeling blessed to have another school-year intern from Heartland Camp this fall! Her name is Andi (Andrea) Bohjanen, she hails from Kalamazoo, Michigan and studied youth ministry and worship technology in college. Prior to her internship with Heartland Camp, Andi worked as a photographer for Disney. With the creativity and flexibility required to continue youth events in these wacky times and the need for 2 adults always present, Andi is filling a real need … and she is AMAZING! We are excited for everyone to get to know her!
“God Be With You Until We Meet Again”

by Jennifer Battaglioli

Since I cannot see you all in person, I am writing to let you know we are moving to Florida. We have lived in Overland Park the longest of anywhere we have lived as a family. Our extended family is mostly in New York State and our parents still live in the same houses we grew up in. When we got married, I just assumed we would live out our lives there too. But after three moves, I learned to never say never, and that change can be a very good thing.

Sixteen years ago we drove from NY to KC. Even though we had a computer, I recall using the tried and true yellow pages to look up Presbyterian churches. We visited about 10 over a year or so. GCPC was at the top of my list for the curved sanctuary, a female pastor on staff, and the music and youth programs. I grew up active in our church youth choir, bell choir, youth group and Sunday School. I hoped to find the same for our children to experience and we found it at Grace Covenant. Michael is Catholic but wanted to worship as a family, so he followed my lead. We were in the same Visitor’s Group as Rebecca and Darryl! Our “First Friends” were Amy and Jim Grice who also happened to be neighbors. 16 years later, Will and Jacob had a joint graduation party. Overland Park is where the kids call home and have made their closest friends. Now, off on their college adventures, they are making more friends (if they can leave their rooms!).

During our time with GCPC we have been on many Mission and Music trips, built Habitat houses with Jay, participated in numerous music programs, from “Littlest Music Makers” to Carnegie Hall! Grandma Jean would remind me of how well Isabel and Caroline McDonald connected on their first day in Sunday School. Harold Frye, one of Jacob’s Confirmation teachers, was also a mentor for part of the Boy Scout P.R.A.Y. Program. I could go on for another page, but instead will try to pull this together by saying how grateful we are for the GCPC community being part of our “village” while raising our children, while I pursued my ordination, and while I went through cancer treatment. I know there are families who have made many more moves than us, but in our three, I finally happily realized that if we had not moved, we would not have met you!

Bye for now,
Jennifer, Michael, Isabel and Jacob

“May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.” —Romans 15:13
Even though it was a bit wet

Workshop Sunday went well!

Our main donation collection of kids and adult small coats and food went to the Johnson County Christmas Bureau but approximately 40 medium/large/extra large warm coats and jackets were also delivered to Shawnee Community Services. We’ve partnered with them previously. They basically fill food and clothing needs WITHOUT questions, anyone in the metro is welcome. They have a web page, scsks.org, if you want to learn more or contribute on your own. Also extra thanks to Mikki Walker who took it up a notch and did a “nextdoor neighbor” request collection in her subdivision too! Thanks to all who assisted with the collection for JCCB!

GCPC 20 oz Tumblers Update

In the Spring (just before COVID) we had members place orders for a 20 ounce insulated tumbler in a variety of colors, with the GCPC logo on it. When it was determined that we would not be meeting for awhile, we decided we would not place the order and wait until we could have the opportunity to be together to pass them out when they arrived. Weeks turned to months, and rather than have the church “sit on” the cost of the bill for purchase, we will not be placing the order until January 2021. Kim Krueger will reach out to all who placed orders with this information, and find out if they still want to order. New orders can be placed when an announcement is made in January 2021.
Inclusive. Family Oriented. Welcoming.
