Donna Heer, violin & Bob Dover, clarinet
Liz Chandler, Terri Monrad, Sue Trigger, Connie Richards, Linda Bruns, Gene Wilson, Mitch Trigger, & Joe Hoffman – Singers

Have you not known me from the beginning? Have you not heard it since life began?
I am the everlasting Creator, heaven and earth sprang forth from my hand.

Hope in me and you will be strengthened; run ev’ry race and I will revive.
Walk without fainting, mount up as eagles; hope in me, for I am God.

Look at the sky and try to imagine who could have formed the stars and the sun.
All you can see, and more that is hidden, I chose their orbits, I named each one.

Although it seems your pathways are hidden, I will bring peace to the future you dread.
I made the earth, the seas, and the heavens; I can give strength for what lies ahead.
...hope in me, for I am God.

A TIME WITH STEWART

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (video)

Holy God, we pray for the power to be gentle;
the strength to be forgiving;
the patience to be understanding;
and the endurance to accept the consequences of holding on to what we believe to be right.

May we put our trust in the power of good to overcome evil and the power of love to overcome hatred.

We pray for the vision to see and the faith to believe in a world emancipated from violence,
a new world where fear shall no longer lead men or women to commit injustice, nor selfishness make them bring suffering to others.

Help us to devote our whole life and thought and energy to the task of making peace, praying always for the inspiration and the power to fulfill the destiny for which we and all men and women were created. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF GOD’S LOVE & SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

HYMN 264  “At the Name of Jesus”  KING’S WESTON
At the Name of Jesus

1 At the name of Jesus every knee shall bow,
every tongue confess him King of glory now;
tis the Father's pleasure we should call him Lord,
who from the beginning was the mighty Word.

2 Humbled for a season to receive a name from the lips of sinners unto whom he came, faithfully he bore it spotless to the last,
brought it back victorious, when from death he passed;

3 Bore it up triumphant, with its human light,
through all ranks of creatures, to the central height,
with his Father's glory o'er the earth to reign;
filled it with the glory of that perfect rest,

4 Christians, this Lord Jesus shall return again,
for all wreaths of empire meet upon his brow,
and our hearts confess him King of glory now.

This may well be a hymn based on a hymn, for scholars say that the passage behind it (Philippians 2:5–11), though not in the style of Greek poetry, shows traits of a communal creedal statement capable of being sung. It is set here to one of the composer's most sonorous tunes.
The next day the leaders, elders, and legal experts gathered in Jerusalem, along with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and others from the high priest’s family. They had Peter and John brought before them and asked, “By what power or in what name did you do this?” Then Peter, inspired by the Holy Spirit, answered, “Leaders of the people and elders, are we being examined today because something good was done for a sick person, a good deed that healed him? If so, then you and all the people of Israel need to know that this man stands healthy before you because of the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene—whom you crucified but whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is the stone you builders rejected; he has become the cornerstone! Salvation can be found in no one else. Throughout the whole world, no other name has been given among humans through which we must be saved.”

On the edge of a night lit with hope and promise, all the heavens are filled with the glory of God.
From a rough wooden bed in a stable in Bethlehem shines the light of the world. Alleluia.

For the child that is born here is sent from above to show us freedom and peace and love.
From the life that he lives as he walks among us shines the light for our pathways. Alleluia.

On the edge of a day dimmed with grief and sorrow, though the dark would consume that radiance so bright, from a rough, wooden cross on a hillside called Calvary shine the light that is Jesus. Alleluia!

For the man who hangs there is sent from above to bring us freedom and peace and love.
From the life that denied the grave its power shines our light, our salvation. Alleluia!

This 18th-century text celebrating the sovereignty of Christ has been through several expansions and contractions before reaching its present form. It is set here to the oldest American hymn tune in continuous use since first published in 1793, which was written for it.
