LEADERSHIP: PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

The Christmas Joy Offering reflects that God is with us, through the generous gifts that support church leaders among us, retired, present and future, who have pointed us to God. Even as we support our current and former church leaders through the Assistance Program of the Board of Pensions, God is calling new leaders for our Church and world, through the ministry of Presbyterian-related schools and colleges equipping communities of color — offering students the means for a brighter future and enhanced opportunities to use their talents and skills to serve God, the Church and the world for years to come.

The Christmas Joy Offering is one of four annual special offerings. The church-wide Special Offerings of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) play an important role in defining what it means to be a connectional church in the 21st century, bringing together the diversity of the PC (USA) to focus and take faith-based action on shared concerns. The Special Offerings offer opportunities for partnership, learning, and witness and they profoundly affect the life of the church as a collective witness to Jesus Christ's love for the whole church.

When we give to the Christmas Joy Offering, we share our love with the leaders of our Church —
past, present and future.

Rev. Meg Shoemans’ career has been a long journey. Receiving her M.Div.
in 2007 but not seeking ordination because of the ban on gays and lesbians, she worked at an animal shelter until being ordained in 2018 to the Children’s Hospital of Alabama. A year later, she left this call and worked on a PRN basis as a chaplain at Hershey Medical Center, part-time at a coffee shop and also in a temporary pastoral position at the Market Square Presbyterian Church in Pennsylvania. When COVID shut the coffee shop down she lost critical income. Thankfully, an Emergency Assistance Grant from the Board of Pensions brought her both stability and peace of mind in a difficult time.
“I am grateful for the generosity of Presbyterians, whose Christians joy offerings make it possible to provide support and sustenance to those like Meg, whom God has called. Such gifts bring essential peace of mind and demonstrate our gratitude for God’s gift, in the Christ child.”
