MISSION

IT'S TIME FOR ... SOUPERBOWL XL! From now through January 31, we'll collect non-perishable food items for the Renewed Hope Food Pantry at New Hope SDA Church. About 10% of Johnson County households are food insecure, and many of those households make too much money to qualify for government assistance, leaving them reliant on private charities.

In addition to helping our neighbors, we'll have fun settling some Great Food Debates, such as: Pancakes or Waffles? Bacon or Sausage? One donated item = one vote for whichever side you support!

Vote by placing your donations on the tables in the hallway between the sanctuary and Heartland Hall. Mission Team will count the votes on each table during the Sunday School hour each week and announce the winner from the previous week. If you prefer, you can also give a monetary donation by writing "Communion Offering" on your check or using the Communion Offering option in the online giving portal.

The Great Food Debate for January 12-18 is ... Coffee, Tea, or Hot Chocolate? Which hot beverage is your pick? Bring those donations and say "We gotchu, baby" to our hungry neighbors. And on February 1, we'll say "TOUCHDOWN, GCPC!"
